The Voice Activator

About me

Activating your voice to rise above the rest!

After 14 years of clinical voice expertise rehabilitating injured voices, a shift was needed, to a preventative focus, deepening well-being through voice health and aligned self-expression.

What attendees say:

- "I love your energy!"
- "You are so grounded and graceful, I enjoyed listening the entire time!"
- "You really made the workshop tangible and feel achievable. I'm sure I will be reaching out for your expertise!"

MY MISSION

Our speaking tone and vocal quality can turn people off, or, resonate and connect, no matter the situation.

I guide leaders to captivate audiences through the command of their voice clarity, presence and power, aligning with their divine intuitive voice to speak as their truest selves with resonance and ease so that their business and personal communication rises above the rest.

I believe our voices are a conduit to our well-being; the healthier and more vibrant our natural way of speaking then activates a ripple effect of confidence in communication.
